KEY NOTE SPEAKERS

ERIK CARTER

Associate Professor in the Dept. of Special Education at Vanderbilt University in Tennessee, Erik completed his graduate work in the area of severe disabilities. His research and teaching focus on strategies for supporting meaningful school inclusion and promoting valued roles in school, work, and community for people with developmental disabilities.

TOM REYNOLDS

Tom Reynolds teaches theology at Emmanuel College in the University of Toronto. He lives as fulltime caregiver and advocate with his son, Chris, who is diagnosed on the autism spectrum. His book, "Vulnerable Communion: A Theology of Disability and Hospitality," reflects on this experience and seeks to envision a church wide with welcome.

CHANTAL HUININK

Chantal Huinink is a motivational speaker; author and social justice advocate who lives with a physical 'disability'. She offers several workshops in partnership with Christian Horizons to ensure that church leaders and other allies have tools to acknowledge, encourage and utilize the God-given gifts and talents of people of all abilities in their churches and communities. Chantal is currently completing her Masters of Divinity and Social Work at Wilfrid Laurier University.
